

The West Valley City Youth Council is a group of concerned, active teens who attend schools within the city. Members of Youth Council have a strong interest in government, local issues and civic responsibilities. The Youth Council helps to give back to the community through learning activities and service projects. Involvement fosters a greater appreciation for our government and helps to bestow many skills that will be helpful throughout life. It also is a platform to interact with peers and make new friends. The Youth Council is a group that creates a close connection to subsequently work efficiently to represent the interests of the youth in West Valley City.
